FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DAVID B. MILLER JOINS MBL ADVISORS AS MANAGING DIRECTOR

MBL Advisors is pleased to welcome David B. Miller as Managing Director. Over the last twelve years Mr. Miller has worked as an equity analyst in Washington, DC and has been an advisor with a Charlotte based, boutique investment services firm as well as a major life insurance carrier. He joins MBL Advisors with expertise in wealth management, investment strategy development, and portfolio management. "David Miller will bring enhanced expertise and credibility to our wealth management and private client services practice. We are excited to have him aboard," according to Luther Lockwood, Managing Principal of MBL Advisors.

Mr. Miller earned a B.A. degree from Pfeiffer University; attending on a 4 year soccer scholarship. He later earned his M.B.A from East Carolina's College of Business. He holds his Series 65, Life and Health, and Long Term Care Insurance Licenses.

David has been recognized for his accomplishments as a winner of Registered Rep Magazine's "Advisors with Heart" award and as a 2015 honoree for the Charlotte Business Journal's 40 under 40 award. David was recently honored as the first ever Presidential Merit Award winner from Pfeiffer University.

In the community, David is very involved with his Alma mater as an active member of the University's Alumni Board and a member of the Falcon Club Board of Directors. He is also a Director and the Treasurer for The Kuykenstrong Foundation, a registered non-profit in Virginia that helps children with cancer.
